Name of the Authority	The Inspectorate of Labour and Mines (Inspection du Travail et des Mines, ITM)
Link	http://www.itm.lu
Short abstract	The Inspectorate of Labour and Mines (Inspection du Travail et des Mines, ITM) has the task of inspecting labour relations, working conditions and workers' occupational health and safety in the private sector. The ITM is in charge in particular of ensuring that the provisions of the law and of agreements regard working conditions are applied, and of providing information and technical advice to employers and workers regarding the most effective means of adhering to the legal provisions. The ITM is also responsible for preventing and settling any labour disputes that do not fall within the competence of the National Conciliation Office (Office national de Conciliation). In terms of its structure, the ITM has a functional organizational chart since April 2015. At the operational level, the management is supported by various departments: Training and General Services (Formations et Services Généraux), Help Call Center Establishments submitted to authorizations (Etablissements soumis à Autorisations), Accidents, Investigations and Counseling (Accidents, Enquêtes et Conseils),

	Inspections, investigations and controls (Inspections, Enquêtes et Contrôles) and International affairs. The Help Call Center acts as a competence center in terms of labour law and safety and health at work, including the duration of the working hours (overtime, Sunday and plans of work organization), collective agreements, labour elections, social elections, etc. at the level of the Jurisprudence, FAQs, and as training center for trainee inspectors. Since March 2015, the Help Call Center has been strengthened by staff responsible for the reception of ITM clients at the regional desks located in Diekirch, Esch-sur-Alzette, Wiltz (since April 2016) and Strassen, in order to allow the receipt of complaints and the communication of information to employees and employers and thus to guarantee the proximity to the latter by releasing the labour inspectors, whose most crucial priority must be to exercise the field surveillance.
